My name's Lucio Cuevas. I'm really excited about joining in as a writer for this wiki! I'm a stay-at-home parent, and even though I should be sneaking in naps when I can, I spend a lot of my time online. It can get really lonely staying in all day. Since I'm still kinda new here, I'd honestly be happy to get feedback on whatever I might mess up. I'll get it eventually.
