My name's Cornelia Coffey. I'm excited about getting aboard as a writer for this wiki project! I've been unemployed for almost 4 years now, and I need to maintain my writing and editing skills or I won't ever get back into the workforce. Also, staying home all day is starting to drive me a little batty, so I'm looking forward to forcing my brain to work again. Since I'm still kind of new here, I'd honestly appreciate feedback on anything I accidentally bungle. I don't really know how that works, but I'll get the hang of it once I've had a little time to play around.
